The following are some “alt-media” sources that have foreign government sponsorship.

- Regardless as to what the inquisitor adjuncts to the New American Red Scare think, according to The United Nations 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) – Article 19 Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.
- I loath those who refuse to listen to minority voices. And in this world dominated by the Global Hegemon, virtually everyone else becomes a minority if they resist absorption into the “great blob.”

For a link library relating to international treatise relating to freedom of expression and press, see: <https://www.ohchr.org/EN/Issues/FreedomOpinion/Pages/Standards.aspx>

- <http://www.sana.sy/en/> (Syrian Arab news Agency)
- <https://en.irna.ir/> (Islamic Republic News Agency)
- <https://www.rt.com> (Russia Today)

- <https://southfront.org/> (Also from Russia and provides the most up to date information on Syria, Ukraine and other conflicts American mainstream news studiously ignores.)
- <https://www.chinadaily.com.cn/index.html> (China)
- <https://www.globaltimes.cn> (China)
- <https://www.aljazeera.com> (Qatar)

A few of the above are pro-democracy. A few others are pro-socialist. Most generally avoid those kinds of political affiliations. Many make it clear both political parties are simply two sides of the same coin representing primarily corporate interests and not the people. If they are pro-peace, against racism, misogyny and economic sanctions, and support drastically reducing the ever-widening wealth gaps within and between nations they are probably alt-news. If they level ridiculous vague unproven allegations directed towards one of CI/DoD's target nations, I'll delete it. I've always loathed bullies.
