- 2021 Sept. Silk Road Kung Fu Friendship Tour Part 36 – Interview with Hainan’s Grandmaster Liu Huai Liang continued and introduction to China’s newest martial art Xiang Zi Dao also known as Bing Dao (Late September)

Note on Silk Road travels and series of articles: In each country I tried to 1) interview the Chinese Wushu Federation Presidents, Secretary Generals or other officials, visit and train with their national teams and other clubs when possible and 2) visit and photograph major and minor museums, and 3) visit and photograph all archeological sites I could find. My photographic collection from those travels contains about 15,645 photos. My photo collection of Silk Road martial arts, museums and archeological sites is probably one of the better ones in the world.

I received my first university library card when I was five years old. I read books voraciously and several newspapers every day (China Daily, globaltimes.cn, RT, Al Jazeera, BBC, Wall Street Journal and others), seven days a week. I read the major literary works of every country I visit and have a large book collection. I am fascinated by the world, history, literature, philosophy, the arts, sciences especially evolutionary biology, endocrinology, neurophysiology, linguistics, cultural anthropology, ancient history, biographies of admirable people, and enjoy novels from time to time. For a short list of books, I like see:
